

TSCA Faculty Convention Package

The Texas Speech Communication Association is pleased to offer 2 complimentary Convention Packages to faculty members in Texas to attend Convention in Dallas October 1-3!

Eligibility: Applicants must be full-time faculty members in a speech communications department at an accredited college or university who are not members of TSCA and have never attended convention.

Selection Process: Applications will be accepted through September 1. The Executive Council will review applications and select two applicants to receive the free packages. Selection will be announced September 10, 2015.

Directions: Please complete the following application and return to Melissa Witt, melissawitt2010@gmail.com, no later than September 1, 2015.

TSCA Faculty Convention Package

1. Name

Last Name	First Name	Middle Initial

2. Institution

Name	Department	Department Chairperson

3. Position

Title	Current Teaching Assignment	Area of Research Focus

4. Do you have additional responsibilities on campus (sponsor a student organization, coach a team, etc.)? If so, please explain.

--

5. What professional organizations are you currently a member of?

--

6. What other professional activities do you participate in?

--

TSCA Faculty Convention Package

7. Please look at the TSCA website, www.etsca.com, look at the interest groups and committees: What looks interesting or helpful to you?

8. How did you find out about this opportunity?

9. Why haven't you joined TSCA and what would make you consider joining as a sustaining member?

10. Why should we choose you to receive a free membership and convention package?